

Make It So Studios Releases DANGER QUEST! Epic Puzzle Adventure for iOS

February 16, 2013 – Fredericton, NB, Canada – Indie mobile game developers Make It So Studios are re-releasing a new puzzle adventure game DANGER QUEST! Epic Puzzle Adventure for iPhone, iPod Touch, and iPad. The game is free to download from the iTunes App Store with some levels requiring a small one-time In-App purchase. The game offers challenging puzzles, engaging graphics, exciting soundtrack, and addictive gameplay.

DANGER QUEST! Epic Puzzle Adventure is a puzzle adventure game. The game stars Professor Danger, a globe trotting explorer who uses his puzzle solving skills to escape dangerous situations. Basic gameplay involves moving objects around an area to gain access to gold star items and the level's exit. The game contains six (6) worlds each with five (5) levels. Each world contains a different adventure theme and aesthetic: cave exploration, ancient egypt, jungle, alien planet, arctic snow, and noir film.
